Quarterly Update – Winter 2025

The latest news about ExecHPM students, faculty, and alumni.

A LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

We are devastated by the historic Los Angeles fires impacting our community. A number of our alumni and faculty have lost their homes. Our hearts go out to all those affected. Please know you are in our thoughts, and we will make it through this together. Please click here for resources for the Bruin community to give and receive aid and reach out to us directly if you wish to contribute to immediate recovery efforts.

The fires are a public health emergency, and they put a great strain on resources. We are so proud of the important work our students and alumni are doing in public health. If you are considering pursuing your master's degree in public health or healthcare administration, we encourage you to take action. The world needs your care, expertise, and leadership.

We are thrilled to announce we are growing our team in the Executive Programs Office. Please join us in welcoming Sarah Tran, ExecHPM Program Coordinator. A UCR graduate with experience at SCAN Health Plan, Sarah is already demonstrating leadership skills and taking on projects to streamline our operations.

We have officially started accepting applications for our Fall 2025 EMPH cohort and are introducing the program to interested applicants in our live Info Session webinars, scheduled throughout winter and spring. UCLA employees will receive $2,500 annually toward their tuition. Alumni, if you have a referral, please contact me or Student Affairs Officer Monica Boerger, as we offer a referral fee. Our first review of applications begins February 1st and we will continue to review applications on the first of each month until the cohort is full.

With 50 new students who enrolled in the online MHA program over Fall and Winter, the program is going strong. We welcomed an impressive 40 students to campus in October for MHA Fall Immersion, including MHA Candidate and First Lady of Sierra Leone, Her Excellency Fatima Maada Bio. It was a wonderful week of team building, professional development, and camaraderie. We are so pleased with the number of ExecHPM graduates who attended the MHA Immersion Farewell Reception, as well. Our corner of the FSPH community continues to grow stronger every day.

It was great to see so many of you take advantage of the invitation to attend the HPMSA Alumni Mixer on October 18 at the UCLA Faculty Club. Looking around the room, it was so nice to see EMPH and MHA students and graduates socializing with the larger FSPH HPM community. The bonds you form positively impact the field of public health, and we're so proud of the role each of you play.

Congratulations to the MHA Students and Year 2 EMPH Students who completed their capstone. It was an honor to sit in on the EMPH student applied consulting presentations in November. Your findings are a testament to your honed insights, knowledge, and passion for public health.

We are proud to say that Professor Jonathan Freedman, MSPH '91, has joined the FSPH Hall of Fame with the Lester Breslow Lifetime Achievement Award, celebrated at the Induction Dinner on October 23rd. Professor Freedman is a graduate of FSPH and we've been fortunate to have him teaching in the EMPH Program since 2018.

It's hard to believe but the HPMAA "Leaders of Today, Leaders of Tomorrow" Annual Awards Dinner is just a few months away, coming up on Tuesday, May 20th. We are excited to say that former EMPH Director, Leah J. Vriesman, Ph.D., MHA, MBA, the Associate Dean of Academic & Faculty Affairs at UCLA Extension and Professor in the HPM Department, has been selected as the 2025 Ira Alpert Service Awardee. We are looking forward to honoring her at the dinner, celebrating our students who will be joining the honors societies of Delta Omega and Upsilon Phi Delta, and celebrating the EMPH Sinaiko Business Plan Awardees. The annual event brings together industry leaders and the UCLA public health community.

Wishing everyone a successful winter quarter and you'll be hearing from us again in April with our Spring Quarterly Update.

All my best,

Kyle Sullivan, MSW
Director, Executive Programs in HPM
Interim Director, EMPH Program

FACULTY

Executive HPM draws on the distinguished faculty, programs, and academics of the nationally renowned UCLA Fielding School of Public Health. Courses are taught by leading practitioners and researchers in the field of public health, health policy, and healthcare management, as well as faculty from UCLA's other graduate schools and management-related fields. Their expertise spans clinical practice, applied research, policy analysis, entrepreneurship, and consultation at the local, national, and international level.

Jonathan Freedman Awarded Lester Breslow Lifetime Achievement Award

Congratulations to EMPH Professor Jonathan Freedman, MSPH 1991, who was recognized with the Lester Breslow Lifetime Achievement Award at the 2024 Fielding School of Public Health Alumni Hall of Fame Award Dinner in October at the Jonathan Club in Los Angeles.

With over 25 years of management experience in Los Angeles County's public health sector, Jonathan Freedman has led numerous strategic health initiatives and high-profile projects. Professor Freedman is a graduate of FSPH and has been teaching in the EMPH Program since 2018, and is currently teaching first year EMPH students, "Health Reform: Policy, Research, and Implementation Issues."

Dr. Leah Vriesman To Be Honored as 2025 Ira Alpert Service Awardee

We are thrilled to announce that Leah J. Vriesman, Ph.D., MHA, MBA, will be honored as this year's recipient of the Ira Alpert Service Award at the Leaders of Today, Leaders of Tomorrow Annual Dinner on May 20, 2025. Former Executive Director of the Executive Programs Office in Health Policy & Management, Dr. Vriesman is Associate Dean of Academic & Faculty Affairs at UCLA Extension and Professor at the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health's Department of Health Policy and Management.

Ira Alpert (Class of 1966) created the Department's first alumni association. Now 1,000+ members strong, the Health Policy and Management Alumni Association (HPMAA) honors Mr. Alpert's effort and contribution by granting the Ira Alpert Service Award each year to an individual who has helped sustain, grow and broaden the leadership role of the Association.

Congratulations to Dr. Vriesman and we look forward to celebrating her contributions at the dinner.

EXECUTIVE MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH (EMPH) PROGRAM

Congratulations to EMPH Students on Completing Their Capstone Projects

Each year, in the summer between the first and second year of the EMPH Program, Professor Mike Galper leads students in their summer consulting projects.

The students presented their findings on November 15, 2024, during Session 7 of the EMPH Program Fall Quarter.

Eunice Ninet and Alvin Wong presented a plan for improving employee well-being at Cedars-Sinai.

Alan Rozet and Vanessa Villafuerte evaluated success factors of a pharmacist-led care management program at Agilon Health.

Lisa Edwards and Elías Rodríguez partnered with the VA of California on the value of using patient stories in providing care to veterans.

Dayanara Nieto Flores, Daisy Wang, and Nikki Morales worked with LA General Hospital to improve the connection between emergency room patients and proper primary care resources.

We look forward to seeing this cohort present their Business Plans during Winter Quarter, Session 7 on March 7, 2025.

EMPH Holiday Party

We so enjoyed celebrating with both EMPH cohorts at our Annual EMPH Winter Holiday Party, held at Hershey Hall on December 13, 2024. We love this annual tradition and were so happy to so many faculty could also attend.

It was a 3-way tie for winner of the festive sweater contest: Trishna Singh's sweater was all aglow, Eunice Ninet donned a gorgeous Peruvian pullover, and Marina Martinez could have been mistaken for Frosty with her carrot. Zach Morganstein gets an honorary mention for his festive Hanukkah cardigan!

Thank You, Guest Speakers!

Last quarter, Dr. Julie Elginer invited Zohra Pervez, MPH (EMPH '23), to return to the UCLA campus as a guest speaker in her Reproductive Health Advocacy (HPM 434) course. As the Cedars-Sinai Operations Manager - CS Compass, Executive Health, and LGBTQ+ Center, Zo introduced the Year 2 EMPH students to gender affirming care and other issues that the LGBTQ+ community faces.

Special thanks to Erik Coll, MPH, RN (EMPH '20) for leading an EMPH Professional Development Session during Session 6 of Fall Quarter. As the Injury and Violence Prevention and Outreach Coordinator at UCLA Health – Trauma Surgery, he led a Stop the Bleed workshop and a panel discussion with CRI-Help CEO Brandon Fernandez, MPH (EMPH '20) and UCLA Mobile Stroke Unit Nurse Manager Kayla Kilani, MPH, RN (EMPH '20). The graduates shared their stories about their important work in public health, providing a wonderful opportunity for networking.

EMPH Class of 2024 Making Moves

Special congratulations on the career moves and promotions of our most recent EMPH cohort to graduate. It's only been six months and they are already making big moves in healthcare. The recognition these graduates are receiving is a testament to what you can do with an MPH degree. And this is only the beginning.

MASTER OF HEALTHCARE ADMINISTRATION (MHA)

MHA Fall Quarter 2024 Immersion

Immersion is held each quarter and brings online students to campus twice during their studies. We hosted MHA candidates on campus, October 23-26, during Fall Quarter for a packed schedule of professional development sessions, team-building exercises, and networking. The First Lady of Sierra Leone, Her Excellency Fatima Maada Bio was among the MHA candidates in attendance. Winter Quarter 2025 MHA Immersion is February 26 - March 1, 2025.

Welcome New MHA Candidates

One of the highlights of our online MHA Program is the flexibility. Students can begin their graduate studies throughout the year. Congratulations to the following MHA candidates who enrolled in the program over the Fall 2024 and Winter 2025 Quarters. We look forward to welcoming you to campus at an upcoming Immersion.
